

Dear Sir or Madam,

The blatant abuse of the power by Sinclair Broadcasting in FORCING local stations to carry a political propaganda piece two weeks before election day is wrong.

Thanks to the consolidation of the media, things like this can easily happen. A large media company with a political agenda can get force feed the American public whatever it chooses.

Please, do not allow this to happen.

Thank you,

Andrew Nuss